THE SHIFT

Try-on went mainstream.

Zara, Zalando and ASOS each shipped a fitting room. The independent store can have one too.

01

Zara

Avatar from two photos

02

Zalando

Returns down in jeans

03

ASOS

10k products, iOS

BRAND 01

Zara

TRY-ON · FROM DEC 2025

An avatar, from two photos.

Face and full body. The avatar walks. Zara tells the shopper the image is generated, and may not match real life.

Face + body capture INPUT

Walking avatar OUTPUT

Disclosure on every try TRUST

Fit, measured in returns.

Pilots of the virtual fitting room cut return rates by up to 40% in jeans. The rollout to all customers is the 2026 plan.

40%

Fewer returns in jeans

Virtual fitting room pilot

8%

Size returns prevented

Size tools, 2025 baseline

ZALANDO, 2026. SIZE TOOLS PREVENTED 8% OF SIZE-RELATED RETURNS IN 2025.

03 · ASOS

Your photo, or a likeness.

About 10,000 products on the iOS app. Own photo or an AI likeness. Each try-on loads in 4 to 7 seconds.

CATALOG

10k

Products live on iOS

SPEED

4–7s

Per try-on load

MODE

2

Own photo or AI likeness

ASOS, 17 FEBRUARY 2026, WITH AIUTA. SELECT UK AND US CUSTOMERS.

YOUR STORE

You do not need their team.

Persona is the fitting room and the stylist, inside your store. One script tag. Your cart. Only what you stock.

01
One script tag
Live on your product pages

02
Your cart
Checkout and customer stay yours

03
Only what you stock
No competitor SKUs, ever