WHY NOW

Shoppers now ask before they browse.

Adobe's numbers for US retail sites this season:

+130%

forecast growth in AI traffic this holiday season, year over year.

90%

higher conversion from AI traffic than from other traffic in September 2026.

THE GAP

Most pages are half-readable.

If an assistant can't read it, it can't recommend it.

63%

average citation readability score of a US retail homepage. Over a third of the content is invisible to AI.

83%

of shoppers would abandon a product page that lacks the information they want.
